MAY IS NATIONAL BIKE MONTH IN DUBLIN & PLEASANTON

Energizer Stations will greet cyclists on Bike to Wherever Day, May 20, 2022

DUBLIN/PLEASANTON, Calif. — May is National Bike Month in the cities of Dublin and Pleasanton. Both cities will host activities to promote bicycle safety and bicycling as a healthy way to travel, including the Bay Area's Annual Bike to Wherever Day, formerly Bike to Work Day, on Friday, May 20, 2022.

On May 20, Bike to Wherever Day Energizer Stations are planned throughout the Bay Area. Cyclists can stop to enjoy refreshments and receive free bike bags filled with giveaways from local and regional sponsors while supplies last. The cities of Dublin and Pleasanton, along with BART, Hacienda Business Park, and Veeva Systems, will host Energizer Stations from 7AM-9AM at both BART stations.

- Dublin/Pleasanton BART station located at 5801 Owens Drive, Pleasanton
- West Dublin/Pleasanton BART Station located at 6501 Golden Gate Drive, Dublin

To prepare cyclists for bicycling, the cities are partnering with Bike East Bay to offer bicycle safety education, including learn-to-ride basics, on-the-road safety, and family cycling workshops. Visit www.bikeeastbay.org/education to register for the following workshops:

- Adult Learn-to-Ride Bike Class - Saturday, May 7, 2022, from 10AM – 1PM at the Civic Center parking lot, 100 Civic Plaza in Dublin
- Urban Cycling 101: Day 2 - Sunday, May 15, 2022, from 9AM – 2PM at Hart Middle School blacktop area, 4433 Willow Road in Pleasanton
- Family Cycling Workshop - Sunday, June 12, 2022, from 10AM - 12:30PM at Hart Middle School blacktop area, 4433 Willow Road in Pleasanton

Students at Mohr Elementary, Lydiksen Elementary, Foothill High School, Dublin Elementary, and Amador Elementary will Bike to the Moon during the week of May 9-13, 2022. Students that bike to school during the week will receive goody bags filled with bicycle safety items provided by the Alameda County Safe Routes to School Program, the City of Dublin, and the City of Pleasanton, in partnership with the Alameda County Transportation Commission's Transportation Fund for Clean Air.

The City of Dublin encourages its residents to Bike to Market on Thursday, May 26, 2022, from 4PM-8PM at the Dublin Farmers' Market located at Emerald Glen Park, 4201 Central Parkway. Bicyclists can collect "Carrot Cash" at the City's information table, which is accepted for locally sourced goods or produce at the Market.
